

Ronald Cordover leaves a motto—all's well that end's well, even if there were some hectic moments. In 10 years we see Ronnie under a microscope looking up.

James Cornehlisen leaves Mr. Bielface a book on The Metal Connotation of the Symbols—G.O., by Mr. Nagell. In 10 years we see Jim with blond hair, sleeping in the red room of the White House with a green cover.

Babette Cottin leaves the last half of the Plainview game unseen, her parking space behind the boys' gym, and one of the last boys out of the shower. In 10 years we see Babs living in Greenwich Village acting "arty."

Marguerite Cronin leaves the name Nikito to Mr. DeLaura to give to one of his next year students. In 10 years we see Peggy shouting MAKE-UP.

Robert Cummings leaves for photography school. In 10 years we see Bob still taking pictures.

William Curry leaves his "ranks." In 10 years we still see Bill jumping.

Lyn Dale leaves "Senioritis" to plague its next victims. In 10 years we see Lyn still collecting attendance cards.

Robert Danzer leaves Mr. Singer to his 9th grade girls. In 10 years we see Bob as a chauffeur to Roanne Yurman.

Marilyn D'Aquila leaves whatever is left in the cash register to Mr. Brunell. In 10 years we see Marilyn still in the G. O. store.

Dorothy Dattner leaves Miss Chisholm her Mr. Warriner in Garden City. In 10 years we see Dorothy visiting Miss Chisholm in Garden City.

Elaine DelBarto leaves all future Seniors, Juniors, and Sophomores to enjoy Mrs. Mangan's company. In 10 years we see Elaine hiring a College Board tutor.

Peter Devens leaves Mr. Clarke with his stretching's and laps around the track. In 10 years we see Pete with a hard nose.

Dominick DeVito leaves charging his car. In 10 years we see Dominick overcharged!

Ellen Dick leaves Mr. Rice her Modiglianis. In 10 years we see Ellen a Belgian boatnik.

Elaine Dombeck leaves her broken finger to Miss Botsch. In 10 years we see Elaine typing a 1000 words per minute.

Charna DomBrot leaves Mrs. Mangan a great future in costume making. In 10 years we see Charna with another new hairdo.

Richard Dostal leaves a hand print on the ceiling to Mr. Singer. In 10 years we see Richard doing the speed limit.

Carol Edison leaves her locker for the pleasure of firebugs. In 10 years we see Carol has exhausted her supply of Antioch boys.

Harriet Edwards leaves Mr. Freeman her chapters. In 10 years we see Harriet still talking about Pete.

Steve Effron leaves an English teacher who loves him and a loaf of Tip-Top bread for Miss Colston. In 10 years we see Steve still tittering.

Eileen Egan leaves a container of milk for Mr. Creighton and his peptic ulcer. In 10 years we see Eileen returning for the container of milk.

Linda Eisenstat leaves hoping she won't blush in her Freshman composition class. In 10 years we see Linda playing the leading role in Carousel.

Jeanette Elby leaves in search of more knowledge. In 10 years we see Jeanette with that knowledge.

Elizabeth Enzel leaves a gavel for future Teachers. In 10 years we see Betty teaching mass pest control in her class.

Beth Eppsteiner leaves 39% wiser and 61% fatigued. In 10 years we see Beth 61% wiser and 40% fatigued.

Louise Epstein leaves Mr. Booke "600 words most commonly mis-spelled," all mis-spelled. In 10 years we see Louise correcting her mis-spelled booke.

Valerie Estey leaves Orrin Peasely and his cold hands. In 10 years we see Val "Copen" with problems.

Phyllis Ewen leaves her favorite psycho-analyst. In 10 years we see Phyllis searching for a suitable skinny mate.

Ellen Farber leaves five "unpopular causes" to the editorial writing staff of next year's Southerner. In 10 years we see Ellen gleefully cutting paper dolls out of this year's Southerner.

Marcia Feldman leaves her "SCENT" to Mr. A. In 10 years we see Marcia opening a charge account at Stern's.

Paul Fiske leaves all his school books to the Lost & Found. In 10 years we see Paul flying a jet bomber.

Victor Follender leaves Miss Chisholm a kit containing a phone with records such as “Now, Now, Now, Class,” “You Are Seniors,” and “All Right Now.” In 10 years we see Vic buying flowers from Allens.

Peter Frank leaves Mr. Freeman his chapters. In 10 years we see Peter coming back for his chapters.

Valerie Fraterriego leaves her broken fingernails in the typing room. In 10 years we see Val still typing with short nails.

Philip Friedman leaves Mr. Laise an superb understanding of English grammar. In 10 years we see Phil still deciding whether to move that “castle” or that “knight.”

Thomas Frosch leaves recrudescingly. In 10 years we see Tom winning the Nobel Prize for Literature.

James Frost leaves Mr. B. with eight little Snows. In 10 years we see Frosty melting.

Madelon Garmise leaves Bobbin’ along. In 10 years we see Maddy still Bobbin’.

John Garwood leaves G. N. S. for the deep South in hopes of little work and easy living. Do we see John at Miami U. in 10 years?

Kenneth Geiger leaves “To Continue” and “This bein’ the case” he returns his A5 to Mrs. Ward for some future scholar. In 10 years we see Ken courting J. Weber and in 15 years we see them divorced.

Shelley Geller leaves her masterpieces behind. In 10 years we see Shelley as a master caricaturist for the New Yorker.

Laurie Gelles leaves the dooti rat. In 10 years we see Laurie teaching her children that their toys belong to the community.

Barbara Genser leaves Yogi Bear to Mr. Biel. In 10 years we see her boycotting Colgate products.

Marcia Gerstein leaves one beat-up, much loved Carousel score to Mr. Dickerson and Mr. Ormsby, along with many fond memories. In 10 years we see Marci snowed for her Jewel.

Linda Glasser leaves the librarians still striving for “maturity.” In 10 years we see Linda Aunt to Marsha’s change purses.

Ellen Gluck leaves her split to Eric Metzger. In 10 years we see Ellen smashing “harts” with her “tommy-gun.”

Kenneth Goldstein leaves nothing, he’s a non-conformist. In 10 years we see Ken the owner of an American, Chinese, French, Hawaiian, Spanish, Turkish, and Venician restaurant.

Luril Gomillian leaves all his vines to Little Rocken, and his shints to Bunny and Sis Curry. In 10 years we see Luril being knocked out in the Boston Arena by a young, tough kid Goldstein.

Eleanore Gordon leaves cheering to the tune of Johnny Mathis, sprinkled with Old Spice. In 10 years we see Eleanore trying to hire her Johnny Mathis for the Senior Prom.

Marshall Gordon leaves Mr. Freeman his fiduciary reclamitory snerdnitzes and the implicated, fascilitated nezfams to room 402. In 10 years we see Mike a “Phi-Bate” All American.

Charles Gould leaves “snack detention” from Mr. Freeman to the “boys.” In 10 years we see Chuck getting a new pair of wings at flying school.

Theresa Granata leaves her empty YOGURT containers to the cafeteria. In 10 years we see her as the mother of ten little karakters.

Carolyn Granoff leaves 8 Wilshire Drive. At last she is emancipated! In 10 years we see Carolyn replacing Doris Day.

Anthony Grauer leaves Mr. Dickerson a “Quiet, Please!!” for up and coming band members. In 10 years we see Tony reading the New York Times in room 416.

James Greenberg leaves Mr. Singer another loud tie for his collection. In 10 years we see Jimmy still saying, “A rolling stone catches Moss.”

Sheila Greenberg leaves Mrs. Mangan trying to finish costumes. In 10 years we see Sheila helping Mrs. Mangan with the costumes.

Susan Grossman leaves Mr. Proctor something; but she can’t think of anything—so she will just leave him! In 10 years we see Sue leaving Mr. Proctor a Gamble.

Madeline Gura leaves Mr. Freeman a colony of Ants. In 10 years we see Maddy in Lenny’s $65,000 house.

Madeline Hall leaves all her gum wrappers to Mr. McGrath. In 10 years we see Maddy still playing both ends against the middle.

Mark Hammer leaves without the heart attack Mr. Tucker foresaw for him. In 10 years we see Mark the proprietor of a home for orphan babies and settlement children.

Lloyd Harolds leaves informing Miss Chisholm that there is no one in her second period class by the name of either Howard or Harold; his name is Lloyd. In 10 years we see Lloyd still being referred to as Harold or Howard.

Thomas Harris leaves Mr. Singer at Hungry Horse Dam. In 10 years we see his brother helping him with his math figures, the 38-24-36 ones.

Diane Harrison leaves Mr. Turner “the easiest Soc. teacher in the school.” In 10 years we see Diane posing for a Miss Clairol ad.

Ann Harte leaves Mr. Freeman her books of notes for some lucky student next year to rewrite. In 10 years we see Ann picking her “fight.”

Yvonne Hatcher leaves Mrs. Vielberg all of the Hydrochloric acid, in hopes that her future students are more careful with it. In 10 years we see Yvonne with a Bostonian accent.

Mary Hauck leaves Mr. Minionis some free time in 4th period study hall. In 10 years we see Betsy Christying with Christy.

Joseph Healy leaves love and kisses to his two favorite teachers, Mrs. T. and Miss C. In 10 years we see Joe still trying to give his girlfriend his ring.

Howard Heller leaves his predictions of G.N.S sports results to the bookies. In 10 years we see Howie sports casting on a news show sponsored by Rexall.

Otto Herch leaves Mr. Turner two strong rubber bands for his MG. In 10 years we see Otto complaining about the young rascals who speed around corners

Patricia Hill leaves Mrs. Mangan all the last minute costume changes. In 10 years we see Pat with a normal metabolism.

David Hillman leaves tarnished bass clarinets with warped reeds. In 10 years we see David riding a Volkswagen.

Stephen Holmes leaves worn out legs, worn out voice, and a worn out writing arm. In 10 years we see Steve the #1 track star of Ethiopia.

Robert Howard leaves Mr. Biel a first period class that will give him their undivided attention all thru the year. In 10 years we see Bob a challenging competitor for Jack Parr.