

- HANS JOHNSON - leaves still front flipping for fun. In ten years we see Hans making menus for the cafeteria.
- BOB JAROS - leaves his lamp post knocked over. In ten years we see Bob at the Palace.
- ELLEN KAPLAN - leaves still asking Mr. Price. In ten years we see Ellen as a Pulitzer Prize winner in literature.
- JOEL KAPLAN - leaves audio-visual aids, for once on his own accord. In ten years we see Joel writing creatively.
- BOBBY KAPLAN - leaves with a much-awaited senior license. In ten years we see Bob still playing cards with "the boys."
- WARREN KATZ - leaves his crew cut. In ten years we see Warren as a camp director.
- RITA KAUFMAN - leaves crossword puzzles. In ten years we see Rita studying nursing.
- SHARON KELLERMAN - leaves Mr. Liquori. In ten years we see Sharon replacing both Mrs. Gold and her well-known desk sign in L.I.J.
- CAROL KELVIN - leaves saying "wait a minute I have to change the channel". In ten years we see Carol counting sheppards instead of sheep.
- MERRYL KESTENBAUM - leaves as vice-president of the Hubba Club. In ten years we see Merryl writing bunk reports.
- NORMA KIRSCHNER - leaves her lunch table. In ten years we see Norma still "STANding" up for what she thinks is right.
- PETE KLEINMAN - leaves his hanging curve ball. In ten years we see Pete back on the rubber.
- JOAN KLINGER - leaves her "S9". In ten years we see Joan as an artist with a painting in an art show.
- RICHARD KNIGHT - leaves a test paper in accounting. In ten years we see Richard as a Philadelphia lawyer.
- PAUL KOEHLER - leaves tooting his oboe. In ten years we see Paul conducting the Great Neck symphony orchestra.
- DICK KOGAN - leaves laughing at Del Barto. In ten years we see Dick playing basketball with Wilt.
- DENNIS KONNER - leaves Larry Liebowitz to Mr. Conger with love. In ten years we see Dennis as Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.
- GILBERTA KORMAN - leaves her effervescent personality and scintillating smile. In ten years we see her studying Funk's vocabulary book.
- JUDY KOZUCK - leaves popovers to Lorraine. In ten years we see Judy still courtin' Morton.
- GAYLE KRAMER - leaves to work in an N.Y.U. butcher shop. In ten years we see Gayle still making up her mind

- MARILYN KRAUSS - leaves for Norwich with another Fridays absence excuse. In ten years we see Marilyn haveing switched a high school ring for a diamond.
- EILEEN KRAVITZ - leaves a cheerleading uniform. In ten years we see Eileen as a sewing machine operator.
- DIANA KRESH - leaves her artistic talent. In ten years we see Diana with a "kresh" on Tony Perkins.
- LEN KUPERMAN - leaves his button down ears. In ten years we see Lenny with a tapered body.
- JILL KUPIN - leaves some lace to match every outfit. In ten years we see Jill married to an Ohio farmer.
- JOAN LACEY - leaves singing "Water's Ripple and Flow" while dropping pins and pencils. In ten years we see Joan as a high-jumper.
- MADDIE LAKE - leaves her pet salamander. In ten years we see Maddie lying on an "old tattered cot".
- ROBERTA LANDMAN - leaves the 50 yard dash. In ten years we see Roberta at the finish line.
- NAOMI LANG - leaves Miss Tuck her answers. In ten years we see Maomi with an exotic first name.
- HELEN LASAR - leaves speaking fluent French. In ten years we see Helen with a handicap of 3.
- LOUISE LAVITT - leaves a smashed up car and an appendix. In ten years we see Louise switching from brown loafers to white nurses' shoes.
- KAREN LEE - leaves with a language all her own. In ten years we see Karen writing a dictionary.
- BEVERLY LEFF - leaves her high hopes happily hopping along. In ten years we see Bev having "h" trouble
- BRUCE LEFKON - leaves the basketball team his fantastic hook shot. In ten years we see Bruce as a Latin teacher.
- LESLIE LEHMAN - leaves "Schwebs" of paper. In ten years we see Leslie watching 24 hours a day.
- AILEEN LEHRMAN - leaves Scott paper napkins. In ten years we see Aileen covered with sand.
- JEANNE LENGSEFELDER - leaves J.P. with a fond farewell. In ten years we see Jeanne with long black hair.
- JUDITH LENKE - leaves still singing alto for Dr. Pinter. In ten years we see Judy as a model.
- LIZ LENT - leaves Mr. Porter and creative writing and Target '60. In ten years we

- ANDY LEVIN - leaves the attendance office. In ten years we see Andy manufacturing late passes.
- BARRY LEVINE (blond & thin) - leaves two black eyes for Mr. Casey. In ten years we see Barry making the holes for the do-nuts.
- BARRY LEVINE (the larger) - leaves his careful scientific laboratory work for Mr. Wynne. In ten years we see Barry reading a play to Miss O'Connor.
- SALLY LEVITT - leaves with her French book open. In ten years we see Sally doing graduate work at Miami University.
- DON LEVY - leaves his ergs and degrees for the next generation. In ten years we see Don solving all the world's problems.
- ESTHER LEVY - leaves a lot of clubs without her help this year. In ten years we see Esther as president of Sterns.
- JANE LEVY - leaves a smile. In ten years we see Jane singing "Saturday Night was the Loneliest Night of the Week".
- NORMAN LEVY - leaves $200 for a successful Hi-Y faculty game. In ten years we see Norm as a leading American Soccer player.
- SUE LEVY - leaves some yogurt. In ten years we see Sue voting Taft.
- ROGER LEWIS - leaves the football team. In ten years we see Roger as a nuclear physicist.
- STEFFI LIEBERMAN - leaves drinking whiskey sours at 11 A.M. In ten years we see Steffi combing her hair in rear view mirrors.
- KEN LIEBLINE - leaves his morning hikes. In ten years we see Kenny in a wheelchair observing wild dancers.
- BONNY LIEBLICH - leaves her crib sheets. In ten years we see Bonny making "theses".
- HOWARD LINDENBAUM - leaves his heckling at class council meetings for greener pastures. In ten years we see Howard imitating Big Brother.
- FRAN LINKER - leaves the key to Mr. Petrakis' room. In ten years we see Fran as a mailman.
- MIRIAM LIPMAN - leaves a clean attendance card. In ten years Mimi will be a mommy.
- JEAN LOUNSBERRY - leaves perambulating perspicuously, proving, perchance, praying is pretty potent. In ten years we see Joan changing her mind.
- DENNIS LUBLIN - leaves swimming. In ten years we see Dennis with a date to the G.O. Dance.
- PAT LUNDSTEN - leaves Dr. Pinter a sharp note. In ten years we see Pat as a famous singer.
- ELIZABETH MAISH - leaves still smiling. In ten years we see Liz as a donut manufact-

- DAVE MANDEL - leaves Mr. Casey a double. In ten years we see Dave staying in step.
- JIMMY MANDEL - leaves Sharfstein his jokes. In ten years we see Jimmy getting himself into a social situation much too embarrassing.
- SUE MANDEL - leaves the school. In ten years we see Sue with a blond crew-cut.
- JANE MANDELKER - leaves her presidential seat in J.P. to the Class of '61. In ten years we see Jane figuring on how to become the first woman president.
- DEBORAH MANTELL - leaves experiments with light sockets to electricians. In ten years we see her working at Vic Tanny's as a massager.
- BETSY MARCUS - leaves a seat in Mrs. Sears study hall. In ten years we see Betsy as a stagehand with plenty of experience from Mr. B.
- PETE MARCUS - leaves Queenie. In ten years we see Pete as Maynard.
- ROBERT MARCUS - leaves playing the drums. In ten years we see Bob as a doctor for sick physics teachers.
- ROBERT MARKOWIC - leaves still sleeping in homeroom. In ten years we see Bob finally making first period.
- DANDY MARTENS - leaves organization of the Arista pictures. In ten years we see Sandy as a photographers model.
- PHYLLIS MARYONOV - leaves G.I. In ten years we see Phyllis modeling Revlon Nail Polish.
- PATTY MASSLER - leaves as Patty O'Massler. In ten years we see Patty in the St. Patrick's Day Parade.
- STU MATROS - leaves the experience gained from his widespread travels. In ten years we see Stu as a professional after dinner speaker.
- MICHAEL MAYER - leave speaking rapidly. In ten years we see Mike swimming for the Olympics.
- BARBARA MAZZA - leaves vacillating verily and eating cheese. In ten years we see Barbara living happily everafter.
- TOM MCCABE - leaves still operating the Audio-Visual Machines. In ten years we see Tom as a Health teacher.
- JONNY MCNIFF - leaves lockers. In ten years we see John as a hat checker.
- PATRICK MEAD - leaves doing homework during health class. In ten years we see Pat working on the railway.
- LINDA MINWALD - leaves her seat in the cafeteria to Ilene Psaty. In ten years we see Linda using her shorthand technique.
- LLOYD MELNICK - leaves as Head of the Smoos. In ten years we see Lloyd still dating sophomores.

- NEIL MELTZER - leaves a pool shot. In ten years we see Neil as a builder.
- JANE MENSCH - leaves the smoking area. In ten years we see Jane as a famous artist.
- JOYCE MEYER - leaves walking down a mountain with skies in her hands. In ten years we see Joyce as manager of Howard Clothes.
- PETER MEYER - leaves as captain of the Ship. In ten years we see Pete singing bass for Fred Warring.
- NANCY MORRIS - leaves the key to every boys heart in the A. V. Office. In ten years we see Nancy as a stage hand with a good background from J.P.
- JOHN MORTON - leaves singing folk songs in homeroom. In ten years we see John doing his homework.
- RONALD MOSS - leaves his adler elevator sneakers to Jerry Zupnick. In ten years we see Ron buying a Fiat.
- STUART MOSSMAN - leaves still arguing with the Chief. In ten years we see Stuart as superintendant of schools.
- DONALD MURRAY - leaves with his hands full of grease from automachines. In ten years we see Donald a moving actor.
- JUDY NATHANSON - leaves her sweaters soaking in cold water. In ten years we see Judy with short hair.
- MERRYL NESSE - leaves combing her hair in Soc. class. In ten years we see Merryl living in a glass house.
- ALLEN NOVICK - leaves a worn out baseball glove. In ten years we see Allen as a Wall Street financier.
- MARK NYDORF - leaves a little smarter. In ten years we see Mark with a new name.
- DONNA O'HARA - leaves twirling a little faster. In ten years we see Donna twirling even faster.
- VICTORIA PALEY - leaves her diary. In ten years we see Vicki singing in a night club.
- NANCY PALMER - leaves an empty seat in Mr. Price's Soc. class. In ten years we see Nancy as a graceful model.
- BOB PANZER - leaves his Paris-designed riding boots. In ten years we see Bob driving a normal car.
- JOEL PASHCOW - leaves for Cornell and a tennis trophy. In ten years we see Joel deciding which court to play in.
- GLEN PATRON - leaves his bird whistle to Mrs. Thompson. In ten years we see Glen coupier at Los Vegas.
- GERALD PEPPER - leaves a red convertible and plenty of rubber in front of school. In ten years we see Gerald as judge of the Miss America contest.